MURDERED WOMAN FOR JEWELS

While She Kissed Me I Fired Under Her Left Arm, Says Youngster.

New Orleans, April 20.—Phelix Jno. Birbiglia, 21 year old business college student and Charles J. Zelenka, Jr., aged 22, will be arraigned in second City Criminal Court tomorrow charged with the murder Monday night of Mrs. Bertha Neason, their companion in an automobile ride. Robert Burns, age 17, son of a police corporal, who drove the car in which the murder was committed and who caused the arrest of the pair, was being held tonight as a material witness.

Birbiglia, calm and almost defiant during the day, was nervous and excited in his cell at the parish prison tonight. "It was the 'prohibition whiskey' that did it," he said. Zelenka agreed with him.

Smoking cigarette after cigarette, in a manner apparently intended to be boastful, Birbiglia today told the superintendent of police the story of a murder "for those diamonds."

"I wanted those diamonds," Birbiglia told the superintendent, according to information given out by the latter. "I wanted those diamonds: I don't know just why, because I always had plenty of spending money, but I wanted them just the same. Well, I told Charles Zelenka about them, and we agreed to take them away from Bertha. I met her in front of a department store and we engaged Burns to drive us out. Zelenka borrowed a pistol from a negro, and was to give it to me when I signalled him. We had a pop-bottle full of 'prohibition whiskey' and drank it. It was the whiskey that made us carry out the plot."

"We took in a couple of lake side resorts, then instructed Burns to drive down the Turtle Back road, in the rear of the city park. Bertha put her arm around my neck. I pressed Zelenka's shoulder and he passed me the gun. While she kissed me I fired under her left arm. I don't just recall how many shots, but I beat her over the head to make sure she was dead. Then twisted the rings off her fingers, and with Zelenka's help dragged the body to the woods and threw it in a pool of water."

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore has returned from Bennettsville where she has been visiting relatives.

Miss Sadie Tant spent the week end with friends at McCall.

Rev. Reeves of Roanoke is doing the preaching at the Holiness church this week.

Master Earl Lupo of Gaddys Mill is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Powell.

Mr. Allen Hayes spent several days in Hemingway, S. C. last week.

Miss Crisp and Mr. Ormond of McCall spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Ford.

Revival services are being held at Kemper this week. Mr. Finch is being assisted by Rev. Bowyer.

The "Mighty Hogg" Circus is expected in town this week.

Mr. W. M. Shockett who has been spending the past week in Charleston is home.

Mr. Frank Grantham spent a few hours in town with his grandson, Mr. D. Leon McCormac.

There were visitors from Columbia and Floydale at the home of Mr. Trust Booth the past week.

Our community was shocked and saddened on Sunday night when news was received of the death of Mr. Clyde Rozier. Mr. Rozier had been sick only a few days with pneumonia and despite the careful attention of nurses and doctors, he succumbed to the disease. Mr. Rozier is the only son of Mr. Press Rozier. He leaves a father to mourn his death. He was a very dutiful son and will be missed sorely. Those who knew him will not soon forget his attentions to his invalid mother who for many years was a great sufferer. His interment took place in the family burying ground. There were many flowers bought by friends showing the high esteem in which he was held.

TRUCK HIT BY TRAIN

Two Men Escape Death by Close Margin at Bassintyre Crossing

Two young men named Tanner and Williams had a narrow escape from death when a train struck the auto truck they were driving at the Bassintyre crossing near Latta Friday afternoon. The truck was demolished and young Williams sustained injuries which were thought to be fatal.

The young men were returning to Marion after making a trip to Little Rock with a load of Chero-Cola. There is a deep cut at the Bassintyre crossing and the wind was blowing a terrific gale. Young Turner who escaped with slight injuries was able to talk just after the accident and said when they approached the crossing they looked up and down the track, but did not see the train. Just as the truck reached the tracks they discovered the train almost upon them. They attempted to jump, but could not clear the truck before the train hit it. Young Williams sustained a slight fracture of the skull, one ear was torn completely off and his thigh broken. The train caught the truck on the pilot and carried it down the road several hundred feet, completely demolishing it.

The train stopped and carried the young men on to Latta where they were given medical attention by Dr. Major. Young Tanner was able to leave the hospital Tuesday. Young Williams is badly injured and will have to remain in the hospital several weeks.

BIG RACES MAY 27th.

The first race of the season will be held at the Fair Grounds on Thursday afternoon, May 27th, commencing at two o'clock. This promises to be one of the best races in the history of the association. No longer does Dillon have to depend on outside horses for their races as there are over forty horses in training in Dillon county. There are twenty-six horses training at the track here, five at the private track of Mr. M. S. Britt at Little Rock, six at the private track of Mr. Clarence McLaurin and five at the private track of Mr. E. R. Ellerbe.

On last Saturday the racing committee held a meeting and after getting a list of the horses now in training in Dillon county it was found that in order to get the greatest number of horses for each class it would be necessary to have four races, a 2.17 pace, a 2.20 trot and two 2.30 trots, which will be a first division and second division. In order to be fair to all horses eligible to the 2.30 trot after the list is closed the names of all the horses entered in this class will be put in a hat and one half of the number drawn out and the ones so drawn will start in the first division. The ones left in the hat will go in the second division. The entry to the races will close at twelve o'clock Tuesday, May the 25th.

The following horses now in training in Dillon county are eligible to the different classes as follows:

2.17 Pace—Nella Brooks, Shelton B., Little Lady, Muskro, Shelton Mark, Lucian B., Prestolite, Ruth Cummings.

2.20 Trot—Northeast, Fond Memory, Peachierina, Kinsbrook, Olga Son, Ruth Todd, Mawitza, Direct Bingen.

2.30 Trot—Cochato Watts, Miss Liberty, Charley Hazzard, Idol Bergen, Topsy Gale, Bell Clansman, Virginia Forbes, Missourian, Miss Sexton, Peer Silver, Silky Nan, Sorrento May, John R. Azoff, Dan Kelly, Penrod, Polly Medway.

NO PROFITEERING THERE.

Overall Wedding in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

New York April 24.—Profiteers did not profit at the "overall wedding" today in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel of Miss Gertrude Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt, of Brooklyn, to W. Ramsey Frederick, of Pittsburg. The bride was attired in what she described as an "overall jump" suit. In place of the customary bridal white, she wore plain blue gingham, prettily made, to be sure, but undeniably gingham. Her bridal bouquet was of daisies. The bridal outfit cost a shade over $4. A blue-checked gingham dress was worn by her attendant, Miss Frances Grodsky, of Melpstead, L. I. The groom, his best man, J. A. Reinhardt, brother of the bride, and the officiating clergyman, the Rev. W. D. Tucker, pastor of St. Andrew's M. E. church, Brooklyn, were dressed in blue denim suits.

The reception following the wedding was attended by guests attired in overalls, denim and gingham creations.

COLORED MAN DROWNS

Julius Rogers Loses Life in Pee Dee While Out Fishing.

Mallory, April 26.—Julius Rogers, colored, was drowned in Pee Dee river on Friday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock. The body was recovered on Saturday afternoon and buried on Sunday.

Deceased was a quiet, inoffensive man and was well thought of by those who knew him. He went fishing on Friday morning accompanied by a son and some other men. After arriving at Rogers' Lake Julius took a boat and went down the creek to set some hooks. His companions waited a reasonable time for his return and set out afoot to join him. His boat, fish pole and gun were found near the junction of the creek and river. The party searched till dark and returned home. A large searching party set out early Saturday morning and the body was found near where the boat was located. The accident occurred in Marlboro so the sheriff and coroner of Marlboro met the party at Brownsville and ascertained the facts of the case and allowed the body to be buried without an inquest as it was a plain case of accidental drowning.

THREE OUNCES OF CLOTHING.

Paris, April 25.—It is no exaggeration to say that the majority of society women who attend the Long-champs races this afternoon probably wore fewer clothes than even the ancient Greeks. There were indeed, strong visible hints of the Garden of Eden. All of which is in obedience to the latest edict of Parsian fashion arbiters which may be summed up as the "featherweight mandate."

It is estimated the average weight of clothes worn by the fashionable beauties in the grand stand and paddock did not exceed three ounces, which is declared by the Rue De La Piaz style kings to be the absolute limit within which the fair sex should keep. One famous fashion judge gave this compilation today as "perfectly proper."

Chemise—One-quarter of an ounce. Combination—One ounce.

Stocking—(both)—Half an ounce.

Dress—One ounce and a quarter.

Petticoats are not mentioned because they haven't been worn in France since the war.

The three-ounce weight as a maximum of stylish women's clothes is recommended by those who have the say in these things, for the following reason:

1. The stringent curtailment in French imports of "de luxe" materials.

2. The huge corner on dress goods at the Lyons fair engineered by American buyers who are paying top prices for everything in sight.

3. The dictum of hygiene experts that too many and too heavy clothes spoil woman's complexion and appearance by "dragging down her skin" and fatiguing her.

BIG DAY AT MARION.

If the people of Dillon could just partly realize the significance of the festival to be staged in Marion on Wednesday, May 5th, in commemoration of the heroic achievements of General Francis Marion whose departed spirit, it has been recently learned through some mysterious source, will be in communication with the happy, rollicking and carefree crowd on that day through the medium of the weird ouija, it would simply be staggering.

When the Marion Chamber of Commerce first outlined this novel, stupendous, this spectacular, this gigantic event of gayety, they had little conception of the magnitude and grandeur it would develop. Something new is popping up every day. The Chamber of Commerce is overwhelmed with inquiries about the approaching event. The towns that have not been invited to send queens resent the fact, but Marion states that the only reason every town and city in South Carolina has not been permitted this honor is that it would be overrun with royalty, and there might be a shortage of kings, princes and palaces to entertain, escort and accommodate them. Secretary Daniels and Ex-Ambassador Gerard will probably be present and make addresses. Arrangements are being made with a view to getting the Columbia and Charleston baseball teams of the South Atlantic League to play during the afternoon, and this will attract a multitude of fans. Darlington it is rumored, will institute aeronautic passenger service, which will probably be a very wise arrangement, as some apprehension is felt that the trains will be congested.

A number of the numerous attractions to be presented have heretofore been mentioned, and for this reason, together with the fact that they are constantly multiplying, would make further mention of them impracticable. So everybody had better come to Marion and see for themselves.
